Escaped Inmate TAKES HIS LIFE.

Body of Henry F. Lanitz, Sufferer From Melancholia in Insane Asylum, Found in Sitting Posture in Vacant Lot.

Death Shift of No. 333 Morgan street found the body of a man, about forty years old, in a vacant lot on Hartford street between Russell place and Gustine avenue, at 12:30 o'clock yesterday morning.

He noticed the police, whose investigation showed the man to be Henry F. Lanitz, who had been a patient at the Insane Asylum for some time, and who had escaped at some time last August.

The body was in a sitting posture and the right hand clasped a newspaper upon which was written, "My father is George Lanitz, No. 248 Page avenue."

The family at the Page avenue address knew nothing of the death until notified by the police.

The police who came to the door, and who said was Mrs. Lanitz, said she would be waiting about it. You will have to see Mr. Lanitz. It was his son.

When Mr. Lanitz was seen at the office of Richard A. Smith, where he is employed, he said:

"It is a very unfortunate affair. There is nothing to be said."
